PRESIDENT'S RAMBLING

First of all I want to send out a huge THANK YOU to all the ACWS members that made 2010 a great reenacting year. You all did a great job of representing the Civil War experience. Once again we start the New Year with thanks to all who made it successful. And I have to start with every ACWS member for supporting our (I mean your) events. And by supporting them not only with your attendance but the positive attitude that marks the core of our success. The ACWS is different it is there for the members, it provides, to the best of our ability, free, relaxed venues where all are welcome and welcome to do your "thing" if it fits and is safe!

This year we have a special thank you for Shawn Stidger. His last event as Commander of the Confederates will be at Calico. Then thanks go to Jim Tebbetts for taking over.

Once again we all owe the Board thanks, I will be first to say thank you to them. For the time and concern for the welfare of the ACWS. They always put the ACWS first, there's no "ego" attacks but there are, good healthy arguments, and when they all come to agreement they all support each other. I wish it were that way all through our hobby. Every board member, PR Joyce Bolin (fantastic Newsletter each and every time), Treasurer Sam Frankl (juggling the books and caring for Annie as she recovers from her stroke), Dave Grimswald our secretary who refuses to make coffee for us, that retired Dogface Dave Crichton who gets testy if you don't spell his name right, Ken Dacey, who is always smiling like he is on something good and of course Shawn.

Thanks to our new membership Director Michele Akkerman. It is quite a difficult task to take on the new job right at the beginning of the year with Calico breathing down her neck. Speaking of Calico. It has been a rather drawn out negotiation with them but they are still incredibly happy with our program. Everybody is back, the rifle raffle is on and the Saturday dinner is set. The folks who stay over for Monday will have a pistol raffle and a free lunch at one of the restaurants.

Our March event is the co-sponsored event at St Catherine. The Union camping has been improved with the camps along the fence on the field. And for units that "vant to be alone!" they can camp opposite the Confeds on the front lawn. April the battalions support Prado and we are trying to make Costa Mesa a break even event. Thanks to Scot Peca for working this out for us. Right now it is tentatively scheduled for The last weekend in April. We are working on OERRM, and Blythe but they are being slow coming back to us. We will see and keep you informed.

Let me know what you think you know where to find me!

Paul Denubilo

From our ACWS MEMBERSHIP DIRECTOR

"I presented an idea to the board at our last meeting about the possibility of acknowledging members who have longevity with the ACWS, and present certificates for 5, 10, 15, etc. years of service, along with a period-appropriate lapel pin for those who have 10+ years. Further discussion will take place at another meeting."

Michele Akkerman - Membership Director

MILITARY DISPATCHES

CONFEDERATE COMMAND: Due to the recent change of command, I'm sorry to say that there is nothing to report from the Confederate Command at this time. No articles were submitted. I share your disappointment and ask that you contact your unit commanders for assignments at the Calico event.

UNION DIVISION:

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Union Division,

The last few months have been somewhat idle, with only a few skirmishes, we have had time to rest and recoup from the previous campaigning season. We have, on several occasions pushed them to the borders of California, but we have yet to break their spirit and bring them back into the fold and reunite this country. So, Now with reports of movement from their camps that they are headed back into the mining areas, we will move engage them at or near the Town of Calico in the mining district outside of Barstow. We will gather our forces in February and move in to the area and remove any threat that is in this area. That being said, all Company and Brigade commanders are now tasked with preparing their units and get them marching to the engagements.

Some news for future events, the Lincoln Shrine Boy Scout Pilgrimage is Saturday, February 5, 2011. The Lincoln Shrine Open House is Sunday, February 6, 2011. This is two weeks before Calico. . The hours of the pilgrimage are 7 am (for living history display set up) to around 3 pm. The open house is from 11 am to 3 pm. This may prove to be a good spot for recruiting,

Following this engagement, I am asking that any unit or individuals that can please come out to the St Catherine event on march 26-27 followed by the Prado dam event in early April.

Thank you for those in attendance and for supporting the ACWS. Also for Calico everyone needs to get their memberships in please don't wait until the last minute.

Your Obedient Servant,
Lt. Col. Kenneth Dacey
Commanding ACWS union Division

To the Union Commander of the Federal Forces: 19 Feb

We have received messages from our spies in the southern regions that it has been determined that Rebel forces are advancing on Calico to take control of the mining district. Tebbett's Division should arrive approximately 19 February. I have ordered Union artillery units to take positions within Calico to prevent the rebels from entering the town. Additionally, I have ordered artillery units to prepare a retaliatory counter offensive against rebel forces should they reach the mines on the outskirts of the town.

Your humble servant,
Major David Bolin
Union Artillery Command

On January 28, 1861, the SC Legislature, meeting in Hibernian Hall in Charleston, passed legislation officially establishing the state flag. As the state had recently seceded from the Union, it was determined that a flag was needed to represent South Carolina's independence.

The legislature looked to the flag used at Fort Moultrie in the June 28, 1776, battle of Sullivan's Island. At that time there was no United States flag, so the 2nd South Carolina Regiment's flag flew over the fort. The regimental colors consisted of a dark blue banner with a white crescent in the upper corner. Using that flag as inspiration the legislature added a Palmetto tree to the banner's center and the state flag was adopted. The January 29, 1861 issue of the Charleston Mercury newspaper stated:

"The Legislature last night again altered the design of the State flag. It now consists of a blue field, with a white palmetto tree in the middle, upright. The white crescent in the upper staff corner remains as before, the horns pointing upwards. This may be regarded as final."

The crescent was not turned diagonally as we see it today until 1910.
