Ever wondered what a real cannonball sounds like coming past? Here's your chance to find out! Come out for the events you love, and for new events you won't soon forget. Remember the "Wall of Death?" You ain't seen nut'in yet!

Our beloved Civilian Corps will be with us in the beautiful Imperial Valley this January, they will be offering the soldiers meals as a fundraiser for their worthwhile endeavors. Please inform me by e-mail in advance (even if you are going to register on site) whether or not you would like meals from them so that I can inform the good folks in the Civilian Corps for their planning! More on this to follow.

Time to dust off that bullet mold folks...show your pards what you are made of!
